President's Letter

Dear Fellow Bobcats:

Thanks to each of you for your continuing support by sending in your annual dues and especially to the many LIFE members who continue to send additional money every year. Also, thank you to the many contributors to the Paws, Big Cats, Top Cat Clubs, Special Recognition, In Honor and In Memory. The annual dues letter donations are our main source for supporting many school functions, events, groups, scholarships and producing our newsletter so we say thank you one and all

Grandview Heights school sports teams had another tremendous year. Hats off also to the Grandview Marching Band. For a school of 320 students to have 140 members in the band is amazing. Academically, Grandview continues to be #1 in the area and we celebrate that tradition.

I am proud to be a small part of bringing back the tradition of painting Halloween designs on Grandview Avenue windows. Read on for more details about this project.

Grandview celebrated Veterans' Day on Sunday, Nov. 11, with the rededication of the Soldiers Monument at Memorial Park at Oxley, West Second and Northwest Boulevard. Details are also in this issue and we give a giant thank you to Tom Williams '43.

New GHHS Principal Robert Brown seems to be a perfect fit and can be seen everywhere around the community. Welcome aboard!

Thank you to all alumni for sending anecdotes and updates about their lives. Thanks also to our editorial staff for putting all this information into this newsletter in beautiful form and getting me the praise. Without Teri Antolino Williams '74, Molly Hammer Tanner '82 and Ash Reynolds Babbitt '87, the dedicated team with true Bobcat Spirit, we wouldn't have this outstanding update! Thank you also to John Gloyd '71 for doing such a great job as our webmaster.

The article regarding past football coaches left out one of the most successful coaches who won a CBL title after beating Upper Arlington 14 to 0.
Bill Thomas was football coach for two seasons (1945 and 1946). He then went on to coach at Upper Arlington in golf and other sports.

Bill had two successful coaching seasons, including winning the Central Buckeye League title in 1946. Grandview played at Upper Arlington in the final game and were supposed to get beat. However, we beat the Bears 14 to 0 to win the CBL championship. Coach Thomas finished his coaching career at Upper Arlington.

In September 2013, there was a post in the lobby of my building about the death of a resident. This was accompanied with the obituary of the person, signed by another resident who was her friend. The deceased woman was Eileen (Jo) Wyman and the obit was signed by Kay Williams, her friend, co-author and writing partner. Eileen was the daughter of the mayor of Grandview. In fact, Grandview Woods was re-named Wyman Woods in his honor. I got in touch with Kay, who lives just a few floors away in the same building. Seeing each other almost daily, we didn't know we had all attended GHHS. Eileen graduated in 1948 and Kay graduated in 1951. I see Kay several times each week. Her sister Jerri was in the Class of 1956. Now, we're all Facebook friends. It's indeed a small world. Bobcats are everywhere. Several more alums live in the NY area and we are all in touch.

I was very pleased to see the newsletter article regarding the 1955 College All-Stars versus the National Football League Champions, and the roles Tad Weed and Ralph Guglielmi played in that game. I have felt that the magnitude of their performance in beating the NFL Champion Cleveland Browns may not have been fully appreciated. For a little perspective, according to Google, there were 42 such games played. Two ended in a tie. The All-Stars won nine games (21%) and the professionals won 31 (74%). It gets better. In the 42 games played, only one All-Star team scored more points than the 1955 team. Further, in the 20 games played since 1955, only two All-Star teams (10%) won. In five of those twenty games the All-Stars did not even score.

Finally, and perhaps most impressive, Ralph and Ted were responsible for all 30 points that the All-Stars scored in the 1955 win over the Cleveland Browns, the defending NFL Champion.

Ralph threw all the touchdown passes and Tad kicked all the field goals and extra points. Yes, two guys as amateurs from a little high school like Grandview Heights playing such roles in defeating a "big time professional champion" may be unprecedented in major sports history. It makes you proud to be a Bobcat.

For what it is worth, Tad was my big brother in the Rooks and I miss him.

A few weeks ago we lost a very special lady, Ann Anderson, wife of classmate Andy Anderson. Ann always enjoyed our class reunions, alumni games and gatherings at the Knotty Pine.

Andy and Ann reserved the Scioto Country Club for our 50th Reunion and, to me, it was the best we ever had. We blew the Class of '54 reserves for this celebration so our 55th and 60th gatherings were hosted by Ann and Andy at their house. She

I am sorry to report the passing of my wife of nearly 60 years, Virginia Lee Jones Miller, Class of 1959. She was the best thing that ever happened to me. Editor's note: Art and Virginia Lee met at the Grandview pool when he was 15 and she was 12. Art was a lifeguard. They lived in Tucson, Arizona and Las Vegas. Art is currently living in Eureka Springs, Ark., and would enjoy hearing from classmates.

Yes, Mrs Pope picked me up and took me to kindergarten! She was great, and what I remember was she always said she "had eyes in the back of her head!" Of course, she was looking in the rear-view mirror at what was going on in the back seat of the station wagon! So I guess that made an impression on me when I was 5 or 6 years old. Love the newsletter, keep up the good work!

We have been out of the country for a while visiting the Netherlands, Belgium and Paris. We loved it - what an unbelievable part of the world. We are going to Africa at the end of July for a 10-day safari. We're checking things off our "bucket list" and hope to get back to Grandview soon.

The photo of Mrs. Pope's station wagon took me back to around 1953. My father worked at Battelle. My mother did not drive so I rode with Mrs. Pope. I walked by first grade. Good memories.

Thank you to all who sent cards, emails or came to the calling hours and service - we really appreciated that. She was a very special person and "Mom" to many. She supported Grandview in so many ways such as attending sporting events, Garden Club, Historical Society and many other ways. She accepted Christ as her Savior about one year before she met him. She will be deeply missed.

George Linn '52 By David Rudy '52

It was with sadness that we marked George Linn's passing on May 24. Our Grandview Class of 1952 had guite a spectrum of personalities. We never thought of ourselves as special, especially the Class of 1952. One contingent of late bloomers included several who kept their intellect and idealism undercover, as did most of us. At our 10-year reunion I remember my surprise at how many educated and successful members there were, including many who had earned law degrees and were already quite successful in business and practice. George Linn, after playing basketball at the University of Alabama, returned to the Tide to earn a law degree.

George's career took him to Washington, D.C. as a lobbyist. He knew virtually all the television personalities familiar to those of us who were political mavens. He had a rich social life and said he never paid for a drink at the business/political parties in D.C. (an occupational hazard?)

It is well known that George was an All-American basketball player, recognized ultimately by the Southeastern Conference for his basketball career. To have played football and basketball with both Ralph Guglielmi and George Linn, not to mention the likes of Stan Jones and Tad Weed, was indeed a privilege and they were each intellectual and good students. George was among the most gifted of athletes. In baseball, he was an excellent pitcher. Perhaps we overworked him in our senior year as we had no one who could seriously relieve him. George violated a stereotype as a pitcher by also being a steady and sometime heavy hitter. He could bat from either side of the plate. In batting practice he often hit left-handed and parked balls out of right field into the next street. I was his catcher our senior year and three summers before that.

George took a commission in the Air Force (I believe after his bachelor's degree before returning to Alabama to study law). He was stationed in Europe and told of getting rides in the second seat of a TF-100 (mach 1.3 speed).

When I moved back from Chicago to Delaware County, George and I became re-acquainted and stayed in touch by email. He lived in Sunbury and hosted us at the faculty club at Kenyon College. Before long, he moved back to Alabama to be near his daughter. Soon, George started comparing the Southeastern Conference and the Big Ten. That comparison became a bit muffled after the fateful victory by Ohio State over Alabama en route to the first National Tournament Championship.

I wish the best for George Linn's family. Our cohorts dwindle as we advance into the octogenar ian state. It's sad but unavoidable.

Fitch Receives Bill and Dianna Arthur Scholarship

Dylan Fitch

This fall, I'm attending The Ohio State University Fisher College of Business to major in Finance. Aside from my studies, I also enjoy soccer, reading, music and golf. I would like to personally thank Mr. Arthur for selecting me to receive the Arthur Family Scholarship and helping me attend the Fisher College of Business. I am excited to be at OSU and am looking forward to this wonderful educational opportunity. I also would like to thank my GHHS IT and Business teacher Mark Johnson for helping me realize my passion in business.

The William E. Arthur Family Scholarships were started in 2015. Two awards are presented annually, one each to a Grandview Heights High School and a Grove City High School graduate who are enrolling in The Ohio State University Fisher College of business. Bill graduated from GHHS in 1946 and his wife Diana graduated in 1948. Bill's late wife was a Grove City graduate. Many thanks to the Arthurs for their generous gift.

Generosity of Class of '61

The Class of '61 made a generous donation in memory of the partner of class treasurer and reunion chair Penny Leese. The money will support the VitalSigns Wall of Fame. The class hopes their gift will be a model for other classes to make similar gifts.

The VitalSigns Wall of Fame is a 55-inch, wall-mounted unit, planned for installation in the GHHS breezeway for convenient access. The interactive system will show the amazing history of Grandview athletics and academics. Viewers can swipe through Grandview photos and histories, including Sports Hall of Fame plagues; graduating class composites; school system history; school building photos and stories; awards; and a section featuring teachers, coaches and administrators.

If you'd like to donate, please send checks to GHHS 1587 W. Third Ave. Columbus, OH 43212. Make checks payable to GHHS and add "VitalSigns" in memo field. Please contact brad.bertani@ghcsd.org if you need an invoice.

The Greatest Rivalry

By Joe Arganbright '61 sports reporter at heart

Many alumni will remember the rivalry that existed from the 1920s through 1960s between Grandview and Upper Arlington in most sports, but especially football and basketball. That rivalry was every bit as intense as Ohio State vs Michigan. Most games were played before full houses and sometimes it was standing room only. To say that the rivalry was a bitter one would be an understatement. Grandview always took pride when they beat the Golden Bears, a much larger school than Grandview. In most cases, the last game of the football and basketball seasons would pit the Bobcats against Arlington. The 1964-65 basketball season produced two victories over Arlington during the regular season. It was the LAST game of that season that will go down in history as one of the most memorable victories and upsets in the history of the rivalry.

Friday night, the day before the big basketball game, Grandview first-year wrestling coach Dick Fryman brought a young but gritty wrestling team to meet Arlington's wrestling team. Grandview had never defeated an Arlington wrestling team in the many years they had previously met. Grandview prevailed that afternoon and the trash talking began that Thursday evening. The Arlington wrestlers warned the Bobcats that there would be "revenge" the next night at the Basketball game. Sure enough, when Grandview basketball players came into the gym to get dressed, and the Grandview fans poured into the gym to fill up the visitor side, the chirping and trash talk was already in full bloom. It was a standing room only crowd and a raucous one at that. A bunch of Arlington football players and wrestlers were seen trying to intimidate Grandview fans and players. The Bobcats came into the game with a very ordinary record of 7-9, while Arlington had a winning record in 2nd place in the mighty CBL. The Bobcats were serious underdogs and many anticipated a "blow-out." However, nothing was further

Grandview played five seniors the whole game with no substitutes. It was a hard-fought physical game. Toward the end, an Arlington player undercut Tom Raines and the buzzer went off with Tom still on the floor. Mel leading scorer and playmaker. Parents and coaches from both sides engaged in fisticuffs, wrestling, and shoving. Leading Arlington's effort to resume peace were coaches Marv Morehead and Pete Cory. Grandview was well represented by "Tank" Karlovec and Judge "Pete" Fais. Some people swear that "Tank" was taking on half the Arlington fans by himself. And, at the time, he was on the Grandview School Board. It took almost 15 minutes to get things under control. Jerry Karlovec ('67) ran in to Judge Fais on the floor and he told him that he landed a few good punches. They called for back-up from the Arlington Police. Bill Kraft, Arlington's star

Veterans Statue Rededication at Grandview Heights Memorial Plaza

The Soldier Statue

On the 100th anniversary of the end of the Great War (WWI), the City of Grandview Heights dedicated the Grandview Heights Memorial Plaza at the intersections of Northwest Boulevard, West Second Avenue and Oxley Road with a ribbon-cutting ceremony and unveiling of five 10-feet tall columns that represent the five branches of the military service - Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force and Coast Guard.

rial Day with a very moving ceremony. In 2012, Dr. Tom Williams '43 and his wife Dr. Lowell Williams approached the City and donated money to erect the seven-feet-tall soldier statue that was unveiled in 2013. Once Dr. Williams' vision became reality, he wanted to do more to honor our veterans. Today, with the Williams' donations and additional funds from Grandview and Marble Cliff, Grandview has one of the most beautiful memorial parks in the country dedicated to veterans and to the many that gave their lives for our freedom.

This park has been used for
