On August 7, our classmate, Bruce Quan, will announce his candidacy for the At-Large seat on the Oakland City Council. (Event invitation under separate cover) Like any campaigner, he is going to need a lot of help: walkers, signs in yards, phone bankers, donations, endorsements, mingler at community events, emailer, etc. etc. and, most importantly, your vote.

What would you like to do? Please let him know at bruceforoaklandcitycouncil@gmail.com , friend him Bruce For-Oakland on Facebook or go to www.bruceforoakland.com.

Even if you are not in Oakland, you can do quite a lot. Most everyone still has contacts in Oakland. As there will be an email tree established, you could help immensely by developing an email list of those residents, introducing Bruce, and asking them to honor you with their vote for Bruce. Please let me know if you do not want to receive any further information. sdc

"I think midlife is when the universe gently places her hands upon your shoulders, pulls you close, and whispers in your ear:

I'm not screwing around. It's time. All of this pretending and performing – these coping mechanisms that you've developed to protect yourself from feeling inadequate and getting hurt – has to go.

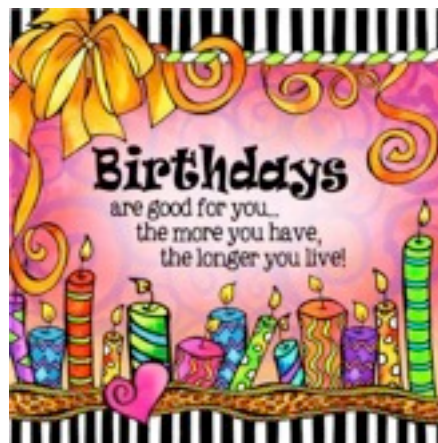

Your armor is preventing you from growing into your gifts. I understand that you needed these protections when you were small. I understand that you believed your armor could help you secure all of the things you needed to feel worthy of love and belonging, but you're still searching and you're more lost than ever.

Time is growing short. There are unexplored adventures ahead of you. You can't live the rest of your life worried about what other people think. You were born worthy of love and belonging. Courage and daring are coursing through you. You were made to live and love with your whole heart. It's time to show up and be seen."

Hi Shayne, Thank you for contacting Member Care.

We allow members to join schools or colleges that they attended for only a short period of time, regardless of their graduation status. To further help bring people together, we also allow members to affiliate with schools or colleges they did not attend by signing up as a friend or parent.

Members may choose to affiliate with a particular community or range of years for a variety of reasons. If you see someone you don't recognize, you may want to contact that person and ask how they're affiliated with your community.

Note: Because members voluntarily list themselves in our community directories, incorrect and duplicate listings may sometimes occur. If we obtain a request from the person who created the registration, we will take the appropriate action in correcting the information. We're unable to edit or remove a registration without consent from the owner of the registration.

If you have any further questions, please reply directly to this email.

Sincerely, Classmates, Inc., Reese, On ssignment at ClassmatesMember Care Department

Higher Learning 2016 from Oaklandish

School's almost out and we're gearing up for our 5th annual "Oakland Educated" tee shirt giveaway. Now a summer tradition, all OUSD high school students with a GPA of 3.5 or higher are entitled to one free, limited-edition Oaklandish shirt, made just for the Oakland-educated.

To pick up your free shirt, just bring a copy of your official year-end 2016 (final) report card (the blue one that comes in the mail) into the Oaklandish store at 1444 Broadway, or in the Dimond at 3419 Fruitvale. After all, local love can't exist without local learning, and the Town still has a lot to teach us all.

The shirt is a limited colorway of our classic tree with roots logo — proof that wherever your Oakland education takes you, your roots will stay planted on the Sunny Side of the Bay. It's available in sizes S through XL for women, and S through XXXL for men.

No purchase necessary. Only while supplies last, limited one per student, and other common-sense stuff like that. All students redeeming shirts must be present with ID and official end of year report card. Sorry parents and guardians, students need to be there when getting the shirts so they can fill out our Oakland Educated survey! Get learnt!

SAVE THE DATE: 6th Annual #Fairyland4Grownups!

This is the sixth annual Fairyland for Grownups benefit, co-presented by Oaklandish and Children's Fairyland. Proceeds help Children's Fairyland keep admissions low (or even free) for local kids.

Fairyland for Grownups tickets will go on sale at BOSK in Old Oakland (494 9th Street) starting Saturday, July 23 at 10am. Ticket sales are limited to 4 per person and are $30 each. There will be no tickets available for sale online this year. All tickets will be sold in-person at BOSK.

Please note: this benefit event is 21+ and you will need to show valid ID at the gate.

During daylight hours, Children's Fairyland is off-limits to grownups. Anyone who wants to enter the park has to arrive with a kid in tow. But not this August 12th from 7-10pm when Oaklandish and Fairyland are teaming up to host a night of pure imagination, for adults only! Enjoy tunes from Dion Decibels in the Old West Junction, local brews, performances, and more! Drinks are included in the ticket price, but food is not. Check out the photo recap of last year's event!

Collector Arnie Gordon Remembers Oakland Through Ashtrays

He pays tribute to the heady days of Oakland nightlife, which were on par and perhaps even dwarfed the current renaissance in Uptown, in an awe-inspiring ashtray collection.

To gaze upon Arnie Gordon’s collection of 112 ashtrays from defunct Oakland bars is to step into a smoke-filled tavern on Broadway, with Cal Tjader playing vibes in the backroom, 65-cent beers on tap, and Kenny Stabler holding court until 4 a.m.
