

Teaching, Engineering, Business Education Top List of College Majors

in Flushing Meadow. The Air Force will receive Robert Giotta, while Carol Giresi will be employed at J. W. Thompson as a secretary. James Glorioso will serve in the Navy. Teri Goebel will study drama at the Neighborhood Playhouse in Manhattan.

Irwin Goldstein will serve in the Navy while Thomas Gonzalez will enroll at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Shep Grazioli is undecided. Joan Gregg, student council prexy, will study education at New Paltz. Robert Grella will work once he graduates but did not indicate where. Frank Griemsmann will attend the State University at Farmingdale to study biology. James Gruber will serve in the Navy.

Edits This Issue

Mari-Ann Reinhardt

Mari-Ann will study Computer Science at Nassau. She is the Chieftain business manager and editor of this senior issue.

Steven Grudzinski will study business at Kent State University. Marie Guaricci will be working and attend school at night for art while John Gurarino is undecided. John Guerriero will serve in the Air Force. Marianne Gulizia will study nursing at Nassau Community College.

Linda Gunder will be employed at the Smart Set Hairdressers. Richard Gurge will enlist in the Navy.

H

Alan Haber will attend Columbia University to study electrical engineering, while Thomas Haberkorn will study physical education at Dickinson State. Diane Halperin is undecided. Paul Hansen is going to work at the Volkarts Stamping Co. as a tool and die maker, while Barbara Hasenbein is going to work at Metropolitan Life Ins. Co. as a typist.

Thomas Haudberg will attend CC NY to study electrical engineering, while in the summer work for the Floral Park Post Office. Diane Heintz will be working as a typist at the Reliance Ins. Co. and Joseph Helfrich will study Aerospace at Brooklyn Poly Tech. John Heller is going to be a printer, while Barbara Hennessey will be working at Ann's Beauty Salon.

Cathy Henneberg, Scribes Vice-President, will be working at Equitable Life Insurance as a secretary. Michael Henry will study education at the University of Mass. and Thomas Henry will attend Queensborough. Carol High will be working at Vectors Beauty Salon while Nirvana Hirschmann will work as a Civil Service secretary.

Walter Hoberman will attend Farmingdale to study Horticulture to become a florist while Joanne Hoerner is undecided. Cynthia Hoffman will be working at the Equitable Life Insurance Co. as a typist while Michael Hoffman will attend Nassau Community to study business.

Robert Hofmann will join the Air Force and Carol Holden is undecided. Carl Holgerson, soccer club secretary, will work at Bell Telephone Company and Fredrick Holze will attend Nassau Community for Business Administration. Lynne Hornauer is undecided while Rose Horshinski will study elementary education at Nassau Community.

Gordon Hoskinson will be employed as a machinist and Donna Howard will work as a clerk for Equitable Life Insurance. Gordon Howe will attend State University at Farmingdale to study Criminology while Ruth Hulsen is undecided, also Joseph Hydell.

I & J

Barbara Ianella will be employed as a typist at Reliance Insurance Company, Hempstead. Gary Iardi will enroll at Massachusetts Institute of Technology to study physics to become an astrophysicist. Diana Ingara will attend Adelphi to study mathematics while Anthony Ingargiola will serve in the Navy. Maria Ingrassia is undecided. Albert Isernio will study accounting at Adelphi University.

Pat Jacob will be employed as a beautician in West Hempstead. Elizabeth Jacobsen, Totem editor-in-chief, will enroll at Fashion Institute to study fashion photography and display. Nancy Jackson will be employed as a typist at Franklin National Bank. Donald Jaros will be employed in the business world.

Gail Jirinec will attend Orlando College where she will study Elementary Education. Carl Johnson will attend N.Y.T.I. in Westbury to study mechanical technology. Linda Johnson will work but did not indicate where. Richard Johnson will enroll at Farmingdale where he will study business administration. August Jones will attend Ottawa University in Kansas to study biology. Russel Junger has not decided if he will join the Navy or Air Force.

K

Dennis Kalchuk will be learning while earning as he will be an apprentice in the field of auto mechanics working at the Franklin Service Station in Valley Stream and will be in the Naval Reserves. Pat Kane will be entering the world of business as she will be working as a bookkeeper for Shell Oil in NYC while Steve Kaplan, member of the Senior Board, will attend PRINCETON UNIVERSITY in Princeton, New Jersey to study physics ensuing a career as a physicist.

Anita Karhu will enroll for the fall semester in Nassau Community College to pursue a career in elementary education while John Kearns will be a trainee for the NYC Police and plans to join the Army. George Kedenburg will go right into the business world after graduation working as a machinist in the Hole Machine Co. in N.H.P. and then plans to enlist in the Navy.

Bruce Kekkonen will attend Brooklyn Polytech located in Brooklyn to study aerospace while Florence Kelly will work as a clerk for the Franklin National Bank. Kevin Kelly will attend Nassau Community College in the Fall semester to study Data Processing and has plans of joining the Air Force.

Eddie Kessler plans to attend Colorado School of Mines in Colorado to study geological minerals to become a geologic engineer and will be employed at Howard Johnson's for the summer as a fountain boy. Roe Kestel will attend the Mary Immaculate School of Nursing pursuing a career as a nurse while Marilyn Kestler will enroll at Nassau Community College to study the field of Data Processing and Computers.

John Kilbride will board away from home at Kakota Wesleyan College in South Dakota to study physical education to become a gym teacher and possibly joining the Navy after college. Stephanie Klareich will attend Harpur College to study Math ensuing a career as a teacher. Robert Klawnsnik will go right to work after graduation for the Long Island Stamp and Seal Company and then plans to join the Marines.

Warren Knecht will attend Nassau Community College this fall to study mathematics in a liberal arts program pursuing the career of mathe-

Most Artistic

Inese Dukats

Student Council treasurer, Inese Dukats plans to attend Queens College where she will major in music theory.

matician while Robert Konnerth will also attend Nassau to study liberal arts. Carol Kovacik, Vice-President of the Sachem Players, will study elementary education at Nassau Community College ensuing a career as a grammar school teacher while Barbara Kowal will study liberal arts to become a teacher. Judith Kraft will pursue an exciting career in the field of IBM. Joe Kratzer will attend the State University at Farmingdale to study mechanical technology pursuing a career of mechanical engineer.

Steven Katzman will attend Cooper Union in NYC studying electrical engineering to become an electrical engineer. Denise Krawchuck will enter the business world and her contribution will that of a secretary while Theodore Kujowski will attend the State University at Farmingdale to study automotive tech. to become an auto mechanic.

Frank Kull will enroll at Nassau Community College to study business in pursuit of becoming a businessman and is currently in the Naval Reserves.

L

Paula LaBarbera, Alpha President, will study business at Nassau Community College while Anthony LaBianca will study engineering at Nassau. Donald Langlieb will enroll at Drexel Institute of Technology in Philadelphia to study engineering. Richard Lanzello will be employed by Koaka Printing Shop.

Robert Larson will attend Farmingdale in the fall to study photographic technology and will be employed at Bridal Art Studios for the summer. Frank Latino will attend Nassau Community College for engineering science. Carl Lau will enroll at Pratt Institute to study design.

Michele Lauro will be employed as a beautician. Donald Lavin will attend Pratt Institute to study interior architecture. Debbie Lawrence will be employed at Marie and George Hairstylists as a beautician. Bruce Ledda will serve in the Navy while Andy Leggio will attend Nassau Community College to study physics. Lawrence Lehmann will attend Drexel Institute to study civil engineering. Diane Leone will be employed at Equitable Life as a secretary. Maria Leone will be employed as a typist.

Tom Leopardi will study aerospace engineering at Northeastern

Tops in English

Marie Gannon

This year's recipient of the English Department's Walter H. Thompson Achievement Award is Marie Gannon. Marie is the news editor of the Chieftain and will attend Queens College in '68.

University in Boston. Leslie Lerner will enroll at Mills College of Education in New York City. Theresa Leslie will study math at State University of Oswego. Mike Licitra will study engineering at Cornell University while Lenny Lieberman will study printing management at Rochester Institute of Technology. Ed Linquist will study electrical technology at Farmingdale. Kathleen Liotti will be employed at Shell Oil Company as a secretary. Laurie Lipus will attend Nassau Hospital School of Radiology to become a licensed X-Ray technician.

Rosemarie Lobaccaro will be employed at Sally's Hairdressers and will take night courses in pediatrics. Mona Lisi will be employed as a typist. David Longeill will attend SUNY at Oswego to study physics. Anna Lopomo will attend a university in Rome, Italy. Linda Lopriore will attend Browne's Business School.

Richard Lorenz will study enginearing at Nassau Community College. Peter Lovan will serve in the Marine Corps, while Michael Lucas will join the Navy and Thomas Luckman will enlist in the Army. Doreen Lutz will be getting married on July 4th. Barbara Luzzi will be employed as a secretary. Anne Lynch will study biology.

Theresa Macek will be working for Pan American Air Lines as a secretary while James MacFarland will study liberal arts at Assumption College. Patricia Maher is going to be a secretary and Maria Maita will go to Hunter College to become a language teacher.

Barbara Majer, Totem Manager, will be going to Carnegie Institute of Technology, to study electrical engineering, on a full four year tuition scholarship. Marianne Malin will attend Nassau Community to study history while Loretta Malon will be studying to become a commercial artist. Patricia Mascalco will be working at Equitable Inc., Co. as a clerk, while Richard Manners will attend Duke University to become a physicist. John Marcell will go to Nassau Community to become a civil technology engineer. Philip Marco will work at Ken-Ro Topographers as an apprentice.

Susan Marinelli will be a secretary while Rosemary Marino will

New West Pointer

Paul Nelson

Playing football and lacrosse, Paul Nelson has distinguished himself in the past three years. He is hoping to attend West Point in the fall.

attend Mandl to become a Medical Assistant. Antoinette Marotta will be employed as a beautician, while Lawrence Marotti will attend Northeastern University to study electrical engineering. James Martin is undecided as is Robert Martin.

Anne Masiello, Rockette Captain, will attend St. John's while Glenn Mathisen will be working at Meadowbrook National Bank as a printing clerk. Gregory Mattia is undecided, while Sandra Matthew will attend Nassau Community to study liberal arts.

Beatrice Mauro will be employed at Interpublic Advertising Agency as a secretary. Maria Mauro will be employed as a data processor while Kevin Maxwell will serve in the Army. Peter Mazzone is undecided while John McCarren will be employed as a printer.

Douglas McCunn will enroll at Gettysburg College in Pennsylvania to study business administration. William McKenna will study accounting. Michael McNally will enroll at Nassau Community College. James Meier will attend Farmingdale to study horticulture. Evelyn Mellina will attend Hofstra to study art education.

Bonnie Mendicino will be employed as a key punch operator. Robert Meraglia will study secondary education at Queens College while Randy Messinger will study math at Hofstra. Terry Mettler will study data processing at Nassau Community College.

Another Nassau Community College student will be Patrick Miano who will study biology. Patrick's ambition is to be a physician. James Michael will attend Nassau Community College to study engineering.

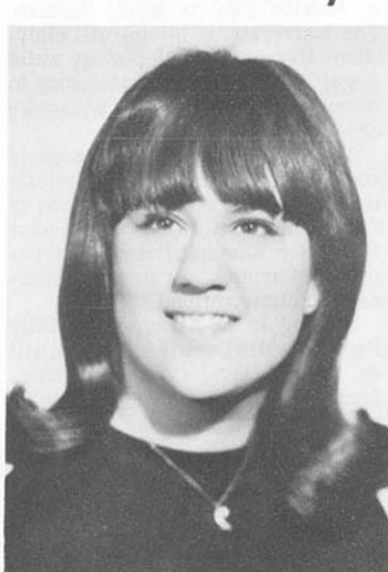

Carmine Migliore plans on joining the Marine Reserves. Meanwhile, you can soon find Patricia Miklas working in Mary's Beauty Salon.

Stephen Mikowski is set for instruction at Robert's Technical and Trade School in New York City. Dennis Mildner, an instrumentation and automation student, will attend Brooklyn Polytech in September. Antoinette Militano will be employed at the General Telephone and Electronic Company in New York City.

Gail Miller will begin working for Metropolitan Life after graduation, as a typist. Marleen Milligan, an academic student, will take data processing courses at Nassau Community College.

Class Secretary

Vicki DeSano

Class recording secretary, Vicki DeSano, will continue her education as a liberal arts major at Harpur College, Binghamton, New York.

You can see Kathleen Minichino working as a beautician in Grillo's, Franklin Square. Matthew Mirable will pack his bags and go to St. Louis, Missouri for study in engineering at Washington University. He plans on becoming a civil engineer.

Corrine Modica will study elementary education at Hofstra University starting in the fall. James Monaghan will go right into the Navy. Maria Mondello will seek employment as a beautician.

Stephen Mondello has a job to step into at Sapanza Bakers to work as a baker. Business student Barbara Moore will do clerical work at the Equitable Insurance Corporation. Loreli Moore heads for Nassau Community College where she will study liberal arts.

Peter Morell will go out to Kansas State Teachers College in Emporia Kansas while Jean Moringello will attend Nassau Community College to study accounting. John Morris will be employed at the Franklin National Bank in Elmont as a bookkeeper while Harry Moss will be attending Nassau Community College to study data processing.

Mike Minnaugh will study police science at Farmingdale. Elizabeth Moyse will study business at Adelphi Business School. Richard Muggeo will enroll at Hofstra University but will work at the post office for the summer. Joann Muli will be employed at C'est Bon as a beautician.

Bob Murino will be working as a linotype machinist at Emil Popp and Sons while James Murnane will serve in the Navy. Daniel Murphy will attend the State University at Farmingdale for business administration. Francis Murphy will also attend Farmingdale but will study data processing.

John Murphy will be employed by Fred Schilling and Sons in Franklin Square. Kathleen Muschiatti will study English at St. John's University and will be employed by Baricini Candies in Hempstead as a sales girl.

N

Joan Nagel will study mathematics at Nassau Community College. Linda Napoli will be employed as a typist at a Queens Insurance Co., Karen Naumann will be employed but is not sure where. Paul Nelson will attend U.S.M.A. at West Point. Eileen Neuhs will study retail merchandising at Nassau Community College. Roy Nielsen will serve in the Air Force.

Janice Noebel will attend Nassau Community College in September while Robert Noebel will study retailing at Nassau. Also going to Nassau Community College is Elaine Nowomlynski to study liberal arts.

O, P, & Q

John O'Borski will be attending Farmingdale to study Machine Shop while William Olson will be working for the New York Telephone Co. Ralph Olufsen will enroll in Lowell Technical Institute in Mass. to study Mechanical engineering.

Mary O'Neill will be working as a biller in Franklin National Bank as