

Seniors Tell Plans For Future In College, Work, Travel, Armed Forces

Catherine O'Rourke will be a secretary in the Mutual Insurance Co.

Thomas O'Rourke will be serving in the Air Force and studying education at Oneonta will be Donna Osborne. Raymond O'Shaughnessy plans to be an electrician.

Gerard Packert hopes to be attending the University of America in Mexico City to study Spanish. The University of Miami will claim Diane Pagano to study biology while Roger Palazzo will be majoring in physical education at the University of Maryland.

Sam Palazzolo will study nuclear engineering at NYU. Frank Pallotta will be working as a truck driver as Pat Palumbo will be working as a beautician. Dominic Panzica will enroll in Farmingdale to study Business Administration.

Serving in the Army will be Billy Papiano while Dennis Parsekian will be in the Navy. Choir president, Joann Pascariello will be working as a secretary and Ilse Pauline will attend Mandl to become a dental assistant.

Tom Pecora, Student Council vice-president, plans to attend Nassau Community to study IBM. Queens Beauty Institute will enroll Theresa Perinelli, who plans to become a beautician. Susan Perkins will be working in the Elmont Public Library as a clerk.

Tony Perretta will be going to Farmingdale to study electrical technology, as Baseball president, Bob Persandi will attend Miami University to major in phys. ed.

Ruth Pfeiffer plans to major in secretarial science at Nassau Community, while James Phillips will be working as an electrician. Peter Piazza will be a liberal arts major in St. Francis College.

Serving in the Marines will be Raymond Pinola. Sal Pirillo will enroll at Farmingdale to study business management while Totem senior portraits editor, Barbara Piroch will study in the College of Insurance in N. Y. C.

Tony Pizzarelli plans to attend New York Institute of Technology to major in business, while Paul Portz will be working as a mechanic in Elmont. Attending Georgia Institute of Technology Donald Priest plans to study engineering. Anthony Princi will enroll in Kansas State Teachers College to study physics and chemistry.

Working as a beautician in Smart Set Hairstylists will be Joyce Protasiewicz as Maureen Puglisi will be a typist in the New York Life Insurance Co. Howard Quigley will be serving in the Navy.

R

Clifford Raab will serve in the Army, while Gloria Ramirez, Twirlers Captain, will study education at Hofstra. Carol Ratajack will be employed at the Latin Quarter. Sheldon Ratner will enroll at RCA Institute of Technology to study electronics. Linda Regolizio will be employed as a clerk-typist at the Banker's Trust in New York City. Roy Reile will be employed as a mechanic at Schneiders Super Sinclair Service Station in Elmont.

Ken Reinhert will study biology at Adelphi, while Daniel Reff will study liberal arts at Nassau Community College. Leonard Regolizio will enroll at Nassau Hospital School of Technology to study X-Ray technology. Patricia Relyea will study history at College of Mt. Saint Vincent. Edward Reina will study music at Miami Dode College.

Mari-Ann Reinhardt, Chieftain Business Manager, will study computer science at Nassau Community College and will be employed as a clerk for the summer. Linda Restivo will study education at Adelphi University. Sebastian Reuter will be employed as a tool and dye maker while Kurt Richter will work at the Floral Park Printing Company. John Rigione will be working at American Telephone and Telegraph as a technician.

Kenneth Rispoli will study electrical engineering at Merrimack College in Mass. Peter Rizzo will study refrigeration mechanics at Hudson Valley Community College in Troy, New York. Ginny Robbie will study economics and political science at the University of Buffalo. Barbara Robinson will work in September while Anne Rodriguez will study child care at the Foundling Home in New York.

Alfred Romano will study education at Nassau Community College while Keith Romano will study liberal arts. Frank Romano will study horticulture but did not indicate where. Russell Romei will work as a civil servant for the Town of Hempstead as a mechanic.

Ann Rongo will be employed as a beautician at Suzanne's House of Charm. Bruce Ropke will enroll at Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute. Artsman President, Doris Roschen will study interior design at Nassau Community College nights and work as a manicurist starting in June. Linda Rosenberg will be employed as a secretary at Bell Telephone Company in Hempstead.

Steven Ross will study the film industry at the University of Southern California. Jeanette Rossello will be employed as a stenographer. Larry Roth will study business administration at Long Island University. Michele Rubino will be employed as a typist.

Vicki Rudzinski will enroll at a hair color and cutting school. Albert Ruggiano, Lacrosse club president, will study physical education at University of Massachusetts. Tony Russo will be a secretary, while Mary Ryan will study business at Pierce Junior College. William Rypalski will study engineering at Villanova.

Top Girl Scholar

Linda Fritz

High ranking senior Linda Fritz will attend the State University at Buffalo to major in physical therapy.

S

Joseph Saganek will be employed but is not sure where as yet. Rose Sala will be employed as a secretary while Nick Sampogna will attend Farmingdale. Phil Santoro will enroll at RCA Institute to study electronics. Tony Sanzone will study biology and chemistry at Queens College.

Susan Sasek will be employed as a secretary. Twirlers secretary Ellen Satter will be employed at Diamond National Corporation as a secretary, while Joseph Saude will serve in the Air Force. Fred Scarcello will study engineering at Nassau Community College.

Carol Scavino will be employed at Westgate Beauty Salon, while Barbara Sceppa is planning to be a court reporter. Tony Schifano will enroll at C.C.N.Y. to study architecture. Thomas Schiotis will attend Manhattan College to study electrical engineering and hopes to join the Air Force R.O.T.C.

Tony Schlechter will study engineering at Farmingdale, while Douglas Schmidt will enroll at Lowell Technological Institute in Massachusetts. Lois Schmidt will study liberal arts at Nassau Community College. Bob Schmidt will study physical education at Kansas State physical education at Kansas State Teachers College. Anneliese Schmitt will be employed at Carl's Beauty Salon in Franklin Square, while her sister Lieselotte will study education at Queens College. Joette Schmitt, DECA Club president, will be getting married shortly after school closes.

Edward Schneider will study computer technology at Voorhees Technical Institute. Geraldine Schneider will be employed as a secretary at American Airlines, while Stew Scholl will study criminology at the Miami University. Girls' Leader Corps vice-president, Nancy Schorn will study mathematics at Queens College and pursue a career as a computer programmer.

Kenneth Schroeder will study police science at Farmingdale, while Carol Schwein will be employed as a beautician. Joseph Scibelli will study engineering at Nassau Community College. Frank Scifo will be employed by Schneider and Heiotle, while Mike Scrivano will study business at Nassau Community College. Robert Sensale will study civil engineering at Carnegie Institute of Technology. Louis Serio will enroll at Nassau Community College to study Engineering. Steve Shapiro, Softball Intramurals Captain, will study police science at Farmingdale.

Colleen Shannon will study art education at Nassau Community College, while Stephen Shary is undecided. Marilyn Shattuck, Girls' Leader Corps president, will study elementary education at Nassau Community College.

Attention Seniors

The fact that seniors' names are being printed in this issue of the Chieftain is no guarantee that the senior will be awarded a diploma on graduation day, Saturday, June 24th.

Senior class president and Chieftain sports editor, Jerry Shields will study Industrial engineering at Cornell University. Jeffrey Short will study business at Nassau Community College. Doreen Sicari will be employed at Reliance Insurance Co., Hempstead as a secretary. Frank Sicurella will serve in the Air Force, while Phyllis Siegel, Home Ec. president, will study buying and merchandising at Fashion Institute of Technology.

Bruce Silverman will study electrical engineering at Milwaukee School of Engineering in Wisconsin. Fran Sisto will study nursing at Queens General Hospital. Carol Skura will be employed as a beautician, while Richard Smath will enroll at Milwaukee School of Engineering. Kenneth Smith will study liberal arts at Farmingdale, while Fred Sollog will enroll at University of Virginia to study aerospace engineering.

Marie Sorace, Totem senior portraits editor, will be employed as a beautician. Janice Spandola will be employed as a secretary at Merrill Lynch, Madison Ave., while Nick Spano will study business administration at Nassau Community College. Constantine Sparacio will study commercial art at Farmingdale. Sharon Sparling will be employed as a secretary, while Sachem Players treasurer, Artie Spitzli will attend the College at Buffalo to pursue a liberal arts course.

Linda Sprissler will be employed as a typist, while Cathy Stadler, Totem literary editor, will study biology at Queens College. Ellen Stanco, Varsity Cheerleader captain, will study home economics at Cornell University. Susan Steinkraus will be employed as a secretary at Punt Inc., Floral Park. Best Mannered girl, Cheryl Stephens will study Medical Technology at the University of Kentucky.

Chris Stetz will study engineering at M.I.T., while Carol Straaik will study liberal arts at Nassau Community College. Larry Strojny will be employed as an apprentice tool and die maker. Maria Stroncione will study stenography at Nassau Community College at night and will be employed as a typist during the day.

Corrine Strongarone, now pursuing a business course at Sewanhaka, will use her skills to work as a secretary after her graduation. Lavern Sturtz has no permanent plans for after her graduation, but does plan a one-month vacation to Germany. Ann Sullivan will work as a secretary-bookkeeper while Linda Sunnick will be employed as a beautician by Michael Frank, Garden City.

Chris Susko will join the Navy, as Robert Swan attends Morgan State College in Baltimore to study business. Robert Szarek will attend Queens College to prepare for the teaching profession. Donna Szvetics will attend Woods Business School in N.Y.C. to prepare herself for a secretarial position.

T

David Tabasko will attend Parks College in St. Louis, Missouri to study Aeronautics pursuing a career as a Pilot. Stanley Talka will attend Nassau Community College in the fall semester which is located in Garden City, studying Civil Technology to become an Architect and Jo Tedesco will enter the business world as a secretarial bookkeeper. Jennifer Telesca will enroll in the Mandl School in Hempstead to pursue a career as a Dental Assistant and Robert Thompson will attend the State University at Farmingdale. Craig Tierney will be seeing Uncle Sam in the Navy.

Steve Tietze will enroll in Albright College which is located in Reading, Pennsylvania encountering a career as an accountant. Terry Tomeo will attend the State University at Farmingdale to study business administration to become a secretary while Karl Tool will enroll for the fall semester in Tennessee Technical to study engineering.

Joanne Toscano will enter the business world working for Family Wholesalers Co., Inc. as a salesgirl while Jean Toss will work as a typist at Meadowbrook National Bank. Chris Trautmann will enter the State University at Potsdam majoring in the mathematics end of secondary education.

Nick Trepeta will attend Nassau Community College to study engineering ensuring a career as an electrical engineer. Joey Troise will enter the business world as a machinist in the Gem Grindery, Lynbrook while Barbara Turner will join the Peace Corps.

U

Helen Urnaitis will be employed as a beautician by a Great Neck hairdresser.

V

Francis Valerio plans to attend Nassau Community College to study electronics, as Russell Vantine plans to attend N. Y. Institute of Technology in Old Westbury to study computer technology. Penelope Van Dam will go to Hunter College to study nursing while Vincent Veglis will go to Nassau Community College. Joann Ventimiglia has been accepted by Queensborough and will study business administration. Paul Verlock has accepted a position with the Weiser Motor Co. Regina Verton will be employed as a secretary with a firm in N.Y.C.

Gerard Vesseliza will study engineering at Kansas State Teacher's College, while Pauline Vetter studies nursing at Queensborough Com-

Corps Captain

Marilyn Shattuck

Marilyn Shattuck, Leader Corps president, will study education at Nassau Community College.

Community College. Paul Vitale will go to Tennessee Technical University; he plans to become an engineer. Frank Volpe plans to study business administration at near-by Hofstra University.

W

Raymond Wagner will attend Morris Harvey College in West Virginia to study business administration; Robert Wahl will study electrical engineering at Brooklyn Polytech, in New York. Joan Walsh wants to become a math teacher; Michael Walsh will join the Navy. Robert Walz is undecided.

Diane Ward will use the skills she has learned in her Sewanhaka business course in her work as a secretary. Richard Warde will attend Lehigh University, to major in Physics.

Thomas Wardell plans to study engineering at Nassau Community College. Dolores Wardenburg will work as a nurse's aid at Parkway Hospital, and then enter a nursing school. Joseph Wagner will start work as an apprentice printer.

Harold Warren will study engineering at Stony Brook. Claire Wartski has accepted a position as a beautician at Sal's Coiffure in Garden City, as has Carol Wenk with the James Beauty Salon.

Kenneth Wenzel, now enrolled in the Tech Elec course in Sewanhaka will study engineering at either

Stevens Institute of Technology or Kings Point Merchant Marine Academy. Frederic Windisch, who plans to become an oceanographer, will study at Nassau Community College. Dorothy Wojciula will study nursing at Mary Immaculate Nursing School in Jamaica, New York.

Susan Wolk will be employed as a secretary with American Management Association, N.Y.C. Barbara Wolling plans to become a dietician after completing studies at New York Institute of Dietetics. Marcy Worthingham will be studying nursing at Kings County, as Margaret Wortmann studies liberal arts at Nassau Community. Kathleen Wrenn will study elementary education at the College of Notre Dame in Baltimore, Maryland; she plans to become a teacher.

Y & Z

Luco Yannotto will attend Farmingdale to study civil technology. Roy Yenoli will study electrical engineering at the University of Rhode Island. Joanne Yuhus will be a beautician at C'est Bon Hair Styling, New Hyde Park.

Stanley Zalenski, now taking Architectural Drafting at Sewanhaka, will attend Nassau Community College; Michael Zelany will also attend Nassau, studying engineering. Pam Zezima will major in Physical Education at Orange County Community College in Middletown, N.Y. Stanley Zindulka will begin work as an apprentice for Airborne Instruments.

Those who answered late include: Bernadette Amato who will be employed at Garden City Hair Stylists, while Anthony Cangelosi will attend college. Michele Craparotta will be working as a beautician while Lorraine Caiola will attend SUNY at Buffalo. Bruce Cole will be employed at Airborne Instruments, while Carol Coote will be employed as a key punch operator. Claudia Crawford will enroll in a mortuary school while Patricia Cullen will be employed at Nassau Hospital as a secretary. Bob Curran will pursue a liberal arts course at Nassau Community College.

Anthony Curtis will be employed at Airborne Instruments, while Camille Dascole will be working as a beautician. Linda Decker will enroll at Nassau Community College and eventually be an airline hostess. Judy DeBiase will be employed as a beautician while Diane DelRosso will attend nursing school.

Rozanne DiNatale will study business administration at Nassau Community College, while Steve Eyerman will study biology at CCNY. Pat Fennessey will study education at SUNY at Albany, while Florence Fey will be employed as a typist. Eileen Floro will study nursing at Johns Hopkins University and Bill Foego is undecided.

Ken Kovacs will attend Nassau Community College while Glenn La Mountain is undecided, as is Ray Leverette. Francine Losi will be employed as a key punch operator and Robert McDermott will work.

Those not heard from include: Joan Burk, Kathy Burke, Carmine Butera, Patricia Capua, Thomas Carbone, Anthony Corso, Danny Hall, and Charlene Condore.

Also Dolores Byrnes, Josephine DeLisi, Paul Esposito, Linda Europa, Vivian Gangitano, Gerry Schriever, Carolyn Tizzano, and Joe Ventura.

Also Eileen Lucas, Jack Messina, Charles McComsey, James Morano, John Napolitano, Richard Neubert, Alicia Norwood, Phyllis Porcelli and Karen Treubig.

Also Frank Vicari, John Gurricesi, Hoe Nemic, Sarah Valinski, Vito Vitale, James Walsh, William Walsh and John Wilson.

Seniors Abroad

Exchange student Carol Myers will attend the University of Rhode Island next fall. Renny Kloetzer, and Cathy Connolly, also exchange students, will attend Cornell University to study veterinary medicine and education in Queens College respectively.

FLoral Park 4-1702

Wm. Mockawetch Florist

Choice Cut Flowers
Birthday Corsages

Greenhouses Near Jericho Tpke.
16 SOUTH 1st STREET
Near Jericho, Floral Park, N. Y.