Website

The big upgrade is done—finally. It may be good for Google who required it, but not for the rest of us. A lot changed from the admin aspect, with no manual. Access all of our stuff from the new menu button, top right.

If you want to see or reach out to classmates, go to Classmates 6T5—must sign up or login. I suggest looking at each link to see what's there. While we are working to update Memorial Tributes, you might want to leave a tribute for someone. Check in every week or so, and something should be added.
