LEFT OVER FROM CHRISTMAS

"Funeral Bells"
Funeral bells, funeral bells,
Traffic jams all day.
Death toll zooms,
And people resume
Crashing their Chevrolets.

Falling beer tops ringing,
Making people fight.
Oh, what fun it is to watch
A bar on Christmas night.

"GRAMMAR IN A NUTSHELL"

Three little words you often see Are Articles-A, An, and The.

A Noun is the name of anything, As School, or Garden, Hoop or Swing.

Adjectives tell the kind of Noun, As Great, Small, Pretty, White or Brown.

Instead of Nouns the Pronouns stand- Her head, His face, Your arm, My hand.

Verbs tell of something being done- To Read, Count, Laugh, Sing, Jump or Run.

How things are done the Adverbs tell,

As Slowly, Quickly, Ill or Well. Conjunctions join the words together,

As men And women, wind Or weather. The Preposition stands before A Noun, as In or Through a door.

The Interjection shows surprise As Oh! how pretty! Ah! how wise!

The whole are called Nine Parts of Speech, Which reading, writing, speaking teach.

"The Rat Race Begins"

Stumbling out the front door on a September morning, Anthony managed to make it to school.

Here we find Mr. Boyce on the stage, "One, two, three...(this is fun, he thinks) four, five, six.... Well, uh, welcome back students."

Students: "BCO!"

Mr. B.: "For you new 7th graders I am Mr. Boyce, the principal."

Students: "Yucch!"

Mr. B.: "...and this is the faculty (hisses from the students.) This is your student body president, Anthony Powell."

Ken Honeychurch: "Yippee! Bravo! Yea!"

Anthony: "Danke."

Students: "Yea."

Anthony: "Velcome. You fell right into my trap. You vill obey my ev'ry command!"

Mr. Kohler: This is Pine Grove.

Anthony: "Oh, sorry. Well, we're looking forward to a really great school year, and..."

And here we are at the start of 1973 still waiting for Anthony's great breakthrough. All we ever get are notices signed in his name, rocket countdowns and smiles. How can we...? Oh, I forgot. You can't impeach Adolf Hitler.

C'mon Anthony, do something or we release your report card! We're waiting to see...
